1994 masters winner

HGTV reveals the best glamping spots in the US, including this GA resort travel Jose Maria Olazabal became a first-time major championship winner at the 1994 Masters, which was the 58th edition of the tournament. Olazabal leapfrogged Tom Lehman to claim the victory. Lehman led Ollie by one entering the final round, but Olazabal shot 69 to Lehman's 72 in Round 4. Winner: Jose Maria Olazabal, 279 Where it was played: Augusta National Golf Club, Augusta, Georgia Tournament dates: April 7-10, 1994 Leader after first round: Larry Mize, 68 Leader after second round: Larry Mize, 139 Leader after third round: Tom Lehman, 209What Happened at the 1994 Masters Tournament Jose Maria Olazabal was known throughout his career as a great scrambler, much like his friend and fellow Spaniard Seve Ballesteros. And in 1994, Olazabal joined Ballesteros as a Masters champion by displaying that scrambling ability, along with a great putting stroke. The Masters' official tournament history explained: "During the 72 holes, Olazabal had 30 one-putts, chipped in twice and was six for six in sand saves." Olazabal had two wins on the PGA Tour and 14 on the European Tour when he arrived at Augusta National in 1994. He was also very well known for his Ryder Cup play. But this was his first win in a major championship. He went on to win a second Green Jacket at the 1999 Masters. Olazabal opened with a 74, six off the pace set by 1987 Masters champ Larry Mize. A second-round 67 jumped Olazabal into a tie for fifth place, two behind leader Mize. In the third round round Olazabal carded a 69, moving into second place, one stroke behind Tom Lehman. Mize dropped to third. In the final round, Lehman played solidly, shooting even-par 72. But Olazabal posted a 69 — including an eagle on the par-5 15th hole — to overtake Lehman and win the Green Jacket. Mize finished in third, three behind the winner. Olazabal, Lehman were Mize were tied for the lead after the front nine, but Mize fell off the pace with three bogeys over the back nine. Lehman bogeyed No. 12 and missed a putt to match Olazabal's eagle on the 15th. Olazabal's scrambling was on display on the final hole of the tournament, too, when he hit his approach shot to the green into the crowd. But he managed to get up-and-down for par (and had some room to work with since Lehman bogeyed the 18th, too). Olazabal was the second Spaniard to win The Masters, after 2-time champ Ballesteros. Ballesteros started strong himself with a first-round 70, just two behind the leader, but finished tied for 18th. (It was Ballesteros' last Top 20 finish in a Masters.) This was the first Masters since 1954 in which neither Arnold Palmer nor Jack Nicklaus played the weekend. Both missed the cut.1994 Masters Final Scores Jose Maria Olazabal 74-67-69-69=279 Tom Lehman 70-70-69-72=281 Larry Mize 68-71-72-71=282 Tom Kite 69-72-71-71=283 Loren Roberts 75-68-72-70=285 Jim McGovern 72-70-71-72=285 Jay Haas 72-72-72-69=285 Ernie Els 74-67-74-71=286 Corey Pavin 71-72-73-70=286 Ian Baker-Finch 71-71-71-74=287 Raymond Floyd 70-74-71-72=287 John Huston 72-72-69-69=287 Tom Watson 70-71-73-74=288 Dan Forsman 74-66-76-73=289 Mark O'Meara 75-70-76-70=291 Chip Beck 71-71-75-74=291 Brad Faxon 71-73-73-74=291 Hale Irwin 73-68-79-72=292 Bill Glasson 72-73-75-72=292 Seve Ballesteros 70-76-75-71=292 Lanny Wadkins 73-74-73-72=292 David Edwards 73-72-73-74=292 Greg Norman 70-70-75-77=292 Ben Crenshaw 74-73-73-72=292 Jeff Sluman 74-75-71-73=293 Bernhard Langer 74-74-72-73=293 Curtis Strange 74-70-75-75=294 Scott Simpson 74-74-73-73=294 Vijay Singh 70-75-74-75=294 Craig Parry 75-74-73-73=295 Lee Janzen 75-71-76-73=295 Nick Faldo 76-73-73-74=296 Sam Torrance 76-73-74-74=297 Russ Cochran 71-74-74-78=297 Fuzzy Zoeller 74-72-74-78=298 David Frost 74-71-75-78=298 Nick Price 74-73-74-77=298 Fred Funk 79-70-75-75=299 Fulton Allem 69-77-76-77=299 Sandy Lyle 75-73-78-73=299 Mike Standly 77-69-79-75=300 Wayne Grady 74-73-73-80=300 Andrew Magee 74-74-76-76=300 Hajime MeshiaI 71-81-80-78=300 Costantino Rocca 79-70-78-73=300 John Cook 77-72-77-75=301 Ian Woosnam 76-73-77-75=301 John Daly 76-73-77-78=304 Howard Twitty 73-76-74-81=304 aJohn Harris 72-76-80-77=305 Jeff Maggett 75-73-82-75=305 Previous and next: 1993 Masters - 1995 Masters Page 2 The 2026 Masters Tournament will be the 90th time this golf tournament is played. José María Olazábal won the first of his two Masters titles, two strokes ahead of runner-up Tom Lehman.[1][2][3] and became the sixth winner from Europe in the past seven Masters.[4][5] Olazábal was the second champion from Spain, following Seve Ballesteros, the winner in 1980 and 1983. Larry Mize, the 1987 champion, led after each of the first two rounds.[6][7] and Lehman assumed the 54-hole lead with one of two 69s on Saturday. Olazábal had the other and was one stroke back, with Mize one behind in third.[8] Lehman, age 35, had yet to win on the PGA Tour.[9] In the final round, Olazábal, Lehman, and Mize shared the lead entering the back nine.[4] Mize made three bogeys coming home and fell out of contention. Lehman bogeyed the par-3 12th to fall a stroke back, and at the par-5 15th hole, both Olazábal and Lehman had putts for eagle. Olazábal made his from 35 feet (11 m), but Lehman missed from fifteen (4.5 m), and the lead was two strokes.[3][4][5] After pars at 16, Olazábal three-putted from off the 17th green for bogey, while Lehman missed a birdie from fifteen feet, and the lead was reduced to one at the final tee. Lehman's one-iron found the left fairway bunker, the approach shot was well short of the green, and he bogeyed; Olazábal put his approach into the gallery, but he scrambled for par and had a two-stroke victory.[3][4][5] Fred Couples, the 1992 champion, did not enter due to back problems, withdrawing the previous Friday.[10] Olazábal won his second green jacket five years later in 1999. Lehman won his first tour event six weeks later at the Memorial,[11] and won a major at the Open Championship in 1996.
